

Does your son or daughter
receive training
at work?

Did you know your son or daughter can gain a nationally recognised qualification, that could open doors to higher level qualifications and foundation degrees, with on the job training through an Apprenticeship?

An Apprenticeship can offer your son or daughter the chance to earn while they learn, develop job specific skills that will increase their employability and offer great prospects for future career progression.

They are available across a wide range of industry sectors, including business, education, construction, engineering, media and information technology, so the opportunity to develop existing jobs into an Apprenticeship has never been easier with over 190 to choose from.

Earn while
you learn.
Sounds too good
to be true..?

...well its not with
an Apprenticeship.

Whatever job you've got – whether it's in construction,
accounting, engineering,
fashion or marketing –
you could turn it
into an Apprenticeship.

Earn better wages,
learn new skills,
make yourself more
employable and gain
a nationally recognised qualification – all
while you're earning!
